

THE week just ended has been about the brightest in a social way since the last days of 1903. Among the large affairs were the last Assembly which was a most charming affair; the Heath reception, an enjoyable and charming party, and the Holmes dance Friday evening, which was also one of the bright events of the spring. Numerous dinners preceded all these events and several luncheons have filled in the daytime of the past week. Not much is to be found in the outlook for the coming week, but, with the opening of the Country club next Saturday and a number of other affairs arranged for the same time, society will be kept from wearying.

The date set for the marriage of Mrs. Louise Smedley Smith and William H. Curtin of St. Joseph, Mo., has been changed, and the ceremony will take place as planned Wednesday, April 27. But, owing to the sad death of the bride's brother, Mr. Curtin, the affair following the marriage service. The groom will be accompanied here by his sister, Miss Julia Curtin, and the bride and groom will make a tour of the Pacific coast before going to St. Joseph to live. They will be at home there after the middle of June.

One of the events of the week will be the marriage, Wednesday evening, of Miss Laura Louisa and Frederick Sinclair. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride's parents at 7:30, and the ceremony will be performed by Father Kelly. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Fannie Bird, and Lawrence Hammet will be the best man.

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Niles entertained at a very enjoyable dinner Thursday evening at the University club. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Union Worthington, Major and Mrs. Callif, Miss Starling, Mrs. Ira H. Lewis, Miss Miriam Starling, Rev. Elmer I. Goshen, J. Wolcott Thompson and E. W. Packard.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stephens entertained at a very pleasantly appointed dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Benner X. Smith. The table decorations were most unique consisting of a basket arrangement of daffodils and marguerites, with place cards made to match. Covers were laid for ten.

The fifth annual opening of the Country club will take place next Saturday afternoon. Mr. Robert Harkness and Mrs. George P. Holman will be the hostesses.

A number of the young people are planning a Konopka ride for this morning, and the probabilities are that a merry party will set out for one of the canyons.

Miss Katherine Wells has issued invitations for a Konopka ride to be given a week from Wednesday in honor of Miss Katherine Culmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Tarvin Harris entertained at a Bohemian supper to-night at their apartments in the Louise flats.

Miss Jasmine Young has issued invitations for a luncheon, to be given next Friday for Mrs. Russell J. Schuler.

Mrs. H. D. Niles entertains at a luncheon at the Alta club on Thursday of this week.

Miss Florence Grant, who is still in the east, is spending the present week with friends in Dixon, Ill.

It is quite likely that Mrs. Montgomery Belvin of San Francisco will remain in the city till early in May.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Genter has taken apartments at Whitehall, where she will be at home after tomorrow.

Mrs. C. A. Walker and Mrs. Foote left Friday for a few days' stay at the Walker farm.

The Plate club meets Tuesday at 2:15 with Mrs. De Graff at 161 F street.

Mrs. S. D. Evans entertained about forty little people yesterday afternoon in honor of her youngest child.

The dance given Friday evening at the Ladies' Literary club by the Strollers' club was a most successful event. The hall was decorated with palms and cut flowers, and about 150 young people enjoyed the evening. Punch tarts were served on the floor. Invitations will be issued during the coming week for the second event given by the club, which will be held May 2 at Christensen's hall.

The Social Sixteen met at the home of Mrs. James Dinwoodey, Thursday afternoon, and a most enjoyable time was spent, after which the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Lever, 33 North First West, Thursday afternoon, April 28.

Next Friday, the 22d inst., will occur the select leap year party at Christensen's, given by Mrs. L. P. Christensen. Mrs. C. L. Berry, Mrs. A. F. Angell, Mrs. S. Lund, Miss Ella Stickney and Miss Mabel Cunningham. Invitations have been mailed and all necessary details arranged for one of the most enjoyable affairs of the season.

A pleasant evening was spent on Wednesday by the members of Company D indoor baseball team. They were entertained at a theatre party and followed by a supper given by their manager, Charles F. Bellemere.

Mr. and Mrs. William Goodfellow, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Kearns, Salt Lake, and Mr. Edward Quinn, Omaha, are members of a party that arrived here this morning after a pleasant sojourn on the Pacific coast and the Santa Catalina islands.

The Philharmonic Guaranteing society will hold a meeting at the Clayton music store Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

The Mystic Shriners give a ball at the Masonic hall next Wednesday evening.

The B. S. O. E. club were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Nora Green last Monday evening. Sewing and music were enjoyed in the fore part of the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith are now at home to their friends at 138 South Eighth East.

The ladies of St. Paul's guild have issued invitations for an entertainment, to be given next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. John T. Donnellan, 551 East Brigham street.

A committee consisting of Lee Sanderson, S. Chalker, C. Nichols, William Clements and James Allsworth will give a concert, social and dance in the new Federation of Labor hall, on State street, next Thursday evening.

A pretty wedding of the past week was that of Mr. S. D. Woolley and Miss Kay Kedington, which took place Thursday. The groom is a son of the late Bishop Woolley of the Ninth ward, and the bride is a daughter of J. W. Kedington of 22 C. M. L. A reception was held in the evening, at which a large number of relatives and friends were present. The young couple will make their home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Cobb, formerly of Kansas City, are at home at the Fifth East hotel. Mr. Cobb is manager of the new drug company.

Miss Maud Bay Babcock will give the readings from the Greek tragedies next Friday afternoon at the Ladies' Literary club.

Frank Manning of San Francisco, who has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. Isaac Jennings, for some time, left yesterday for his home.

Mrs. George Rust and daughter will leave Tuesday for an extended visit in the east.

Mrs. Zina H. Smoot was the hostess at a luncheon given at her apartments Thursday evening, complimentary to Miss Lou Nelson of Provo, who is her guest for a few days.

Mrs. John Shea returned from Kansas City Friday. Mrs. Shea was called to Kansas City about two weeks ago on account of the death of her sister, Mrs. Boggs.

Miss Ida Kalis of St. Joseph, Mo., who is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. Smith, 128 East Eighth South, for the past ten months, will leave this afternoon for her home. She has made a wide circle of friends during her stay here and will be greatly missed by them all.

Mrs. William M. Owen and sister, Mrs. M. B. Hardie, after a six weeks' visit through California, returned Wednesday night.

The marriage of Miss Edith Llewellyn and Byron Sperry took place last Thursday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Papworth. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Sperry, father of the groom, and was witnessed by only the relatives. Later about fifty friends came in to extend congratulations to the young people. The bride wore a pretty gown of tan crepe over tulle. She was attended by her sister Gene. Mr. and Mrs. Sperry will be at home to their friends after May 15 at 247 West Sixth South street.

A very enjoyable cookshin was what given Friday evening for the Independent Girl club, at which Miss Flostie Watson was hostess. All were in masculine attire. Fancy dancing, joking, music and all sorts of boyish games were features of the evening. In the dining room a delicious supper was served to the guests by Mrs. Watson and Miss Hodges. Those present were: Miss Needham, Ruth Holding, Emma Lawrence, Clara Tuckfield, May Lewis, Rye Tuckfield, Matt Hammer, Plossie Watson, Mrs. Moore and Lillian Price. The club meets next time with Miss Matt Hammer.

PROVO.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart, who had joined a fishing party Monday afternoon, returned in the evening to find their home in the possession of a jolly crowd of friends. The surprise was in every way complete, and the evening greatly enjoyed by all. James Clove assisted by Mrs. Hannah Tucker acted as master of ceremonies. Delicious refreshments were served. The guests were: Messrs. Needham, William Dym, W. E. Harding, James Clove, Ralph Poulton, Hugh Clayton, Archie Knowlton, Andrew Stewart, J. M. Jensen, Scott Stewart, W. D. Roberts, Jr., W. C. Nuttall, Misses Kitty Tucker, Misses Ida Wilkins, Sadie Graham, Lydia Knudsen, Allie Smoot, Phoebe Campbell, Sadie and Tillie Gray, Florence Epperson, Minnie Startup, Mina Houston, Maud Graham, Fern Smoot, Ethel Smith and Tessie Hines. Messrs. Carl Knudsen, A. O. Smoot, Jr., Milton Knudsen, O. L. Martin, L. Graham, A. C. Sorensen, Wilford Knudsen.

St. V. LeSueur has returned from an extended eastern trip.

Miss Neva Booth of Nephi is visiting with her brother, Joseph Booth, and also Mr. and Mrs. Hyrum Jensen.

Mrs. Roy Dixon is visiting in Salt Lake for a couple of weeks as the guest of State Treasurer and Mrs. J. D. Dixon.

Judge Dusenberry was at the Cullen, Salt Lake, Monday.

Miss Fern Smoot will leave shortly for Salt Lake, where she will remain during the summer.

Mrs. E. S. Hines and daughter, Tessie, spent Wednesday in Salem.

Mrs. George Haverkamp and family returned Monday after an absence of three months spent in California. Mrs. Haverkamp is much improved in health and reports a very pleasant trip.

A very successful social was given Wednesday evening in honor of Wilford Knudsen, who will leave on the 26th of this month for Norway. The entertainment was under the direction of the M. L. associations of the Sixth ward. A very interesting programme lasting about an hour was enjoyed, after which all were conducted to the basement which had been decorated and made bright and cheerful for the occasion. Games of various kinds were carried on and a delicious lunch served by the young ladies. The crowd departed at a late hour with hearty wishes for Mr. Knudsen's success and a safe return.

A very pleasing surprise was given Mrs. William C. Graham Monday evening by the Rebekah lodge. Dancing was the main feature of the evening. Suitable refreshments were served. Among the guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames John E. Bott, George Peay, John Hone, William Homer, J. T. Hawk and Misses Dottie Stevens and Martha Grinn.

Judge E. C. Luckner was at the capitol Wednesday.

William Momer was the recipient of a most enjoyable surprise Wednesday evening, the occasion being his 50th birthday.

The evening was pleasantly passed with social conversation, songs and recitations, after which dainty and delicious refreshments were served.

The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames John Westfall, Walter Peay, Ephraim Homer, George Peay, J. K. Hawk, Canby Scott, Andrew Eggerston, Sidney Vincent, David Vincent, John Bott, C. C. Vincent, W. S. Parker, E. J. Jones, John Vincent and T. L. Vincent; Misses Tessie Hines and Kate Vincent, Messrs. Enoch Hansen and Homer Vincent.

H. M. Tredenburg of Marshall, Minn., after spending a few days in this city, has decided to move his family here.

Parley P. Pratt of Sacramento, Cal., is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Pratt.

Attorney W. K. Reid of Sanpete spent several days in this city visiting friends and relatives.

Mrs. Frank Poutz and children left Monday for Colyer, Kan., where they will remain for some time. Mr. Poutz expects to join his family later.

D. E. Weathermax of the Telluride Power company was a Salt Lake visitor Tuesday.

Melvin Potter of Park City spent the latter part of the week visiting relatives and friends in the Garden City.

Amos Bost of Salt Lake was a visitor in our city Monday and Tuesday.

At the meeting of the Rebekah lodge Thursday evening two delegates and two alternates were elected to attend the assembly in Salt Lake Monday. Mrs. May Watkins and Mrs. Sylvia Homer were chosen as delegates, and Mrs. Kittie Hines and Miss Lottie Redfield, alternates.

The boys of the B. Y. university devoted

Tuesday to clearing the campus grounds. The college girls prepared refreshments for them which were served at 12 o'clock on the university lawn. Their patriotism and love for the university was shown by speeches and constant outbursts of the college yell. In the evening a grand ball was given which concluded a very profitable and enjoyable day.

James Davis, passenger agent for the Great Northern, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson Monday.

Miss Edna Beck left Thursday morning for Heber, where she has accepted a position in one of the millinery establishments of that city.

W. K. Spafford returned from Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Beck returned from Salt Lake Wednesday after a pleasant week's visit in that city.

Miss Lydia Jones, who has been a student at the Agricultural college at Logan, returned home Saturday.

The 80th birthday of J. P. R. Johnson was celebrated at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. R. Johnson, 20 South First East. Covers were laid at 4 o'clock and eighty guests sat down to an elaborate and sumptuous dinner. Games, songs and recitations were indulged in until a late hour. Among the many excellent musical numbers the quartette consisting of Messrs. Andelin, McAlister, Acorn and Reid were listened to with pleasure.

Mrs. D. D. McIntosh in a charming manner Monday evening entertained at the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adams and Miss Nora Beck.

Mrs. C. B. Loose is spending a few months in California.

Miss Ella Gray of Telluride is a guest at the Hotel Roberts this week.

The Nineteenth Century club met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Sam Schwab, 25 North 10th avenue Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Dr. Calder evening entertained at the "Development of the Modern Novel." Following this was an excellent paper on Mrs. P. E. Daniels entertained a few friends at dinner.

Joseph Elliott of Brigham City is visiting for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart.

Will Evans of Lehi, who has lately returned from a two years' mission in the southern states, was in this city Thursday and Friday visiting with friends.

A very enjoyable social was given Thursday evening in the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Jensen in honor of M. I. Bushman, who will leave shortly for Great Britain. The gathering was the Provo City public school teachers and board of education. Mr. Bushman having been engaged a number of years in the public school as teacher. The evening was pleasantly passed in games, songs and recitations. A dainty and delicious lunch was served. At a late hour the guests reluctantly departed, wishing their coworker God-speed. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames M. I. Bushman, Russell, Evan Wride, E. E. Emerson, A. C. Sorensen, N. T. Wilson, Sam R. Brown, Orson Baird and J. M. Jensen; Misses Josephine Kellogg, Elsie Pearson, Allie Smoot, Jennie Robinson, Mammie Beesley, Ethel Whitmore, Ada Wilkins, Ivy Whitmore, Phoebe Campbell, Elsie Ashworth and Mrs. Jennie Wilkins; Messrs. Judge M. M. Kellogg, A. O. Smoot, Jr., Eugene Roberts, Frank Bennett and Will Evans of Lehi.

Joseph Scrowcroft of Scrowcroft & Sons, Ogden, was in this city Wednesday.

Parliament John Smith, Seymour B. Young and Francis M. Lyman of Salt Lake spent Wednesday in this city.

The grand ball given Friday evening in the B. Y. U. gymnasium hall was a grand success. Cream and cake was served.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mrs. Vienna Beath Kimball, the beautiful home of her father, Judge Booth, Wednesday evening. This surprise differed from the usual social gathering as there were no gentlemen invited. Each one present was called upon to relate some funny incident in their life. Punch and cake were served. The guests were: Mesdames Rose Young Stewart, Jessie Olsen, Bertha Manwaring, Hannah Hunter, Marlana Freeman, Alice Blake, Josie Woodruff, Phoebe Lundberg, Misses Nina Bean, Mary Evans, Lizzie Jones, Wilmaette Sperry, Nora and Beatrice Young, Jay Freeman, Elsie Ashworth, Leila Booth.

D. N. Roberts was at the state capitol Tuesday.

Elmer E. Hineckley, who has been studying medicine at St. Louis, returned to Provo to attend the funeral of his father Thursday.

The social under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at the Provo academy had a few of their friends at dinner Sunday.

Friday evening was well attended and greatly enjoyed by all.

Alma, the married sister, Grace, returned home Monday from American Fork, where a very pleasant week was passed.

The Utah Sorosis met at the beautiful home of Mrs. Charles Ward Wednesday afternoon. It was musical day for the club, and Mrs. R. R. Irvine, Jr., delighted all present with some charming piano selections. An excellent paper was prepared and read by Mrs. Mattie Ward on "Charles Knowles Paine," followed by one by Mrs. Phil Speckart entitled "Some American Composers." Mrs. Eugene Thus returned to her home in Heber after a very pleasant week spent in this city visiting relatives and friends. Appropriate Arbor day exercises were conducted at the B. Y. university Friday. The Nineteenth Century club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Schwab. The routine business was disposed of, after which Mrs. Calder read a prize-winning paper, "The Development of the Modern Novel," and presented each member with an artistic souvenir. Mrs. Schwab followed with a sketch of the life and work of George Eliot, interspersed with readings from her Haverkamp, who has been visiting in California, was welcomed back by the club.

PARK CITY.

Tuesday evening Silver Leaf lodge of Rebekah, I. O. O. F., held a meeting at the I. O. O. F. hall at which Mrs. L. E. Hubbard was presented by the lodge with a Rebekah veteran jewel. The presentation speech was made by Miss Esther West and the jewel handed to Mrs. Hubbard, who, when she attempted to respond, was so surprised and pleased at the gift that she was unable to say but a few words to express her appreciation. The gift is a very expensive one and in view of the fact that the honor of receiving such a present from the Rebekah lodge has been conferred but once before in Utah, Mrs. Hubbard is justified in feeling exceptionally proud over the receipt. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

Messrs. Mayne and Leslie Nelson came up from Salt Lake Wednesday morning for an extended visit to her old home in New York.

W. Mont Ferry came up to the Park Wednesday.

Leroy Hughes spent a few days in Park City this week.

W. J. Snyder was on the outgoing train Wednesday.

W. P. Faney was among the arrivals on Wednesday's train.

C. A. Callis came up from Coalville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hubbard entertained a few of their friends at dinner Sunday. Covers were laid for the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Blocher, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raddon, Mr. and Mrs. Shields, Samuel Dein and Harry Dein of Washington, Father and brother of Mrs. L. E. Hubbard, arrived in Park City Thursday morning from Washington, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard.

Mr. Kenyon and sister, Miss Kenyon, returned home Sunday after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Charles Heath.

The members of the O. E. S. held a meeting last Monday night at the Masonic hall. A programme was rendered and refreshments were served. A good time had by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart returned home Sunday after a short visit to Park City.

Miss Hannah Lecompte returned to Salt Lake to resume her studies, after a pleasant week's visit with her parents. Miss Frieda Funk is visiting in Park City.

The dance given Thursday evening, Maple hall by the Woodmen of the World was a great financial as well as a social success.

Mrs. E. E. Harris, Mrs. O. F. Vogle and Miss Ethel Robinson arrived Tuesday morning from Montpelier, Ida., on a two-weeks' visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of this place.

Miss Hope Pickle came up to Park City Sunday to visit with Mrs. Nellie Theriot.

Miss Lizzie Walden left Thursday afternoon for Wyoming after several weeks' visit in Park City with her mother. Mrs. Walden, accompanied Miss Walden as far as Salt Lake.

Jack Keetley, superintendent of the Silver King Consolidated, came up from Salt Lake Tuesday morning.

Mrs. L. E. Hubbard and daughter, Miriam, left Friday morning for Washington for an extended visit.

Fred Simons returned to the Park after a short visit in the city.

Miss Blanche Martin came up from Salt Lake Tuesday.

Robert Kimball came up to Park City Tuesday morning.

J. S. Meyer was a visitor to Park City this week.

John McLead came up from Mercur Tuesday.

Last evening at the Clerks' hall Messrs. W. F. Fournier, Fred Smith, J. F. Robbins entertained at cards, three different rows of tables being used and hearts, euchre and sixty-three being played. Prizes were awarded to Miss Katie Lawrence, Miss Minnie Cunningham and Miss Sulton. Dr. E. K. Ward, Dr. E. P. Lecompte and Julius Frankel. Following the card games refreshments were served. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Misses Laura Townsend, Edna Sutton, Cleo Gutsch and present Smith. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Blocher, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Raddon, Mr. and Mrs. Shields, Samuel Dein and Harry Dein of Washington, Father and brother of Mrs. L. E. Hubbard, arrived in Park City Thursday morning from Washington, spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard.

Mr. Kenyon and sister, Miss Kenyon, returned home Sunday after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Charles Heath.

The members of the O. E. S. held a

Unusual Dress Goods Sale

MONDAY MORNING AT 9 O'CLOCK will be inaugurated a sale of 1,000 Pieces of Dress Goods' Ends bought advantageously of a big New York jobbing house, noted for the high character of its output. The ends are from lengths left over from Spring filling of orders.

The most desirable styles and colors—Blacks and Novelties—every conceivable weave shown this season: Voiles, Etamines, Crepe de Paris, Crepe de Flandres, Batiste, Challies, Nun's Veilings, Melanges, Knickerbocker Suitings, Homespuns, Heather Mixtures, Checks and Plaids.

To be sold by the length and not by the yard. Number of yards and price marked on each piece.

Lengths—for waists—skirts—full dresses and children's dresses. No two lengths the same, therefore prices are impossible to quote. Some are, however, at half price and less.

:: Keith-O'Brien Company ::

DINWOODEY'S SEASONABLE GOODS

For The Warm Weather.

ALASKA REFRIGERATORS

It is important that you keep your food sweet and pure in order to preserve good health. Nothing will make this easier for you than an ALASKA Refrigerator because the principal cause of decay in meats and fruits are dampness and varying temperature; hence a dry atmosphere and uniform temperature conduce to their preservation, and these results can be obtained only by

A Perfect Circulation of the Air in the Refrigerator and its Condensation in the Ice Chamber.

The ALASKA is constructed upon strictly scientific principles by which LOW TEMPERATURE and DRYNESS OF AIR are naturally and inevitably obtained.

The ALASKA possesses a provision chamber free from odor.

The ALASKA produces better results with LESS ICE than any other refrigerator.

All sizes. All grades.

Give Your Baby Plenty of Pure Air.

And at the same time take it in yourself. This is accomplished very easily if you are fortunate enough to own a real good BABY CARRIAGE OR GO-CART. If you do not happen to have one just call on us and we can show you the finest assortment to be seen in the city. They are of the very best manufacture and we guarantee them to be

First Class In Every Particular.

They are made with every late improvement in the gearing, and the finish is of the highest order, and when we say that they are of the celebrated Heywood and Wakefield make, it is enough.

All Grades and Styles.

H. Dinwoodey Furniture Co.
UTAH'S LARGEST HOME FURNISHERS.